

ENERGETIKA 21

International Online Seminar

“The US Contemporary Energy and Environmental Agenda”

1 July 2021

Planned format and organizers:

- St. Petersburg State University of Economics (UNECON) invites for an academic seminar “The US Contemporary Energy and Environmental Agenda”.
- The Seminar provides platform for discussion in open academic atmosphere with the insights of representatives of energy business as well as from international public organizations. The language of the Seminar is English.
- The Seminar is open to public participation (subject to registration). To register, please, inform the Organizing Committee about your participation at least two days in advance by e-mail: energetika@unecon.ru.

Programme (Central European Summer Time):

Chair: Marc-Antoine Eyl-Mazzega, Director of the Center for Energy & Climate, French Institute of International Relations (IFRI)

15:00 – 15:10	Welcoming remarks Dmitry Vasilenko , Vice-rector for International Relations, UNECON
15:10 – 15:30	Prof. Amy Myers Jaffe , Research Professor and Managing Director of the Climate Policy Lab, The Fletcher School at Tufts University
15:30 – 15:40	Q&A
15:40– 16:00	Prof. Manfred Hafner , School of Advanced International Studies (SAIS-Europe) at Johns Hopkins University /Paris School of International Affairs at Sciences Po Paris.
16:00– 16.10	Q&A
16:10 –16.50	Open Discussion
16:50	Closing remarks